

Before lodging your application for Occasional Licence please ensure that you have read the following guidance.

1. WHAT IS AN OCCASIONAL LICENCE?

An Occasional Licence allows alcohol to be sold on unlicensed premises for a specified period of no more than 14 days.

A licensed Private Members Club can also apply for an Occasional Licence if they intend to provide a function or event that is open to non-members.

2. WHO CAN APPLY?

An application can only be made by:

- the holder of a Premises Licence issued under the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005; or
- the holder of a Personal Licence issued under the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005; or
- a representative of a voluntary organisation but only where the application relates to an event taking place in connection with the voluntary organisation's activities.

3. IS THERE A POLICY ON WHAT HOURS I CAN APPLY FOR?

The Licensing Board is required to publish a Licensing Policy Statement setting out how it will exercise its functions under the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005.

The policy statement can be viewed using the following link:

<https://www.glasgow.gov.uk/index.aspx?articleid=17552>

The policy statement sets out the Board's generally approach to Occasional Licences including the timescale for lodging applications.

4. ARE THERE RESTRICTIONS ON HOW OFTEN YOU CAN APPLY FOR AN OCCASIONAL LICENCE?

There are certain restrictions set out in legislation.

VOLUNTARY ORGANISATION

During any period of 12 months a voluntary organisation can be issued

- (a) no more than 4 Occasional Licences each having effect for a period of 4 days or more; and (b) no more than 12 Occasional Licences each having effect for a period of less than 4 days, provided that, in any period of 12 months, the total number of days on which Occasional Licences are issued does not exceed 56.

Please note that these totals apply the voluntary organisation – not to the representative of the organisation or to the premises that is covered by the Occasional Licence.

LICENSED PRIVATE MEMBERS CLUB

During any period of 12 months a Private Members Club can be issued

- (a) no more than 4 Occasional Licences each having effect for a period of 4 days or more; and (b) no more than 12 Occasional Licences each having effect for a period of less than 4 days, provided that, in any period of 12 months, the total number of days on which Occasional Licences are issued does not exceed 56.

There are no restrictions on the number of Occasional Licences which can be applied for by the holder of a Premises Licence or the holder of a Personal Licence. Applicants should however be aware that the Board's Licensing Policy Statement sets out that Occasional Licences cannot be used as a way to circumvent the full licence process.

Once these documents have been submitted, you do not need to submit them with further applications for the same area.

OUTDOOR EVENTS

Applications lodged in connection with outdoor events must be accompanied by a layout plan of the event space clearly showing the delineated area to be licensed. The application should also be accompanied by a statement as to how the area will be delineated and what stewarding arrangements will be in place to ensure that alcohol is only consumed within the licensed area.

If an event relates to a charitable activity then the Licensing Board will require a letter from the charity stating that they are aware of the event and that the charity are receiving some benefit from the event.

In addition to the above, the Licensing Board may request information in respect of any application if such information is considered necessary in order to determine the application.

The current application fee is: £10

8. HOW WILL THE APPLICATION BE PROCESSED?

Once an application has been received copies are sent to Police Scotland and the Council's Licensing Standards Officer. Both have 21 days in which they may respond to the Licensing Board.

Details of the application are also published online for a period of 7 days. Any person can submit an objection or representation to the Board during the 7 day objection period.

Once reports have been received and the objection period has ended, the application will be reviewed by the Clerk to the Licensing Board. The Clerk will consider the terms of the application and any policy issues highlighted by the reports before deciding whether or not to grant, amend or refuse the application. If the Clerk cannot determine the application, it will be referred to the Licensing Board.

Please be aware that if an objection or representation is received then your application will not be reviewed by the Clerk. Instead it will be referred directly to a meeting of the Licensing Board for consideration. If this happens you will receive a Recorded Delivery letter requesting your attendance at the meeting and explaining the reason you are being called. Although you are not legally required to attend it is recommended that you do so. We will contact you, in writing, after the meeting to advise you of the Licensing Board's decision.

9. HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO PROCESS THE APPLICATION?

The Licensing Board received around 3000 applications for Occasional Licence per year. Given the volume of applications and the complexities involved in processing and considering applications, most applications will be considered around one to two weeks prior to their intended start date.

10. WHAT HAPPENS AFTER MY APPLICATION IS GRANTED?

If you have provided an email address you will receive an email advising that your application has been granted and attaching the Occasional Licence. If no email address has been provided, we will issue the licence to you by post.

11. WHAT HAPPENS IF MY APPLICATION IS REFUSED?

If you have provided an email address you will receive an email advising that your application has been refused. If no email address has been provided, you will receive a letter advising of the decision. If you wish, you have the right to appeal the decision at Glasgow Sheriff Court.

The Licensing Board cannot provide guidance on making an appeal; if guidance is required you should consider taking your own independent legal advice or, alternatively, you can contact the Sheriff Clerk at Glasgow Sheriff Court, 1 Carlton Place, Glasgow, G5 9DA.

12. ARE THERE CONDITIONS ATTACHED TO THE LICENCE?

There are standard conditions attached to all Occasional Licences. A copy of these conditions is provided with this guidance. You will be expected to comply with every condition; failure to do so may constitute a criminal offence. The Licensing Board may also attach further conditions if it considers it necessary.
