

What young people said about participation

I feel good to be involved in a group that will listen to your opinions and views as a young person.

I like this because it's great fun and everyone loves it

Great fun did lots, good pictures, enjoyable, amazing - do more events

HOW TO GET IN TOUCH

children's rights service

Your Children's Rights Officer is

MOBILE NUMBER

You can contact us by phone during office hours on:

0141 276 5631

or by emailing ChildrensRightsService@glasgow.gov.uk

Children's Rights Service
Commonwealth House
32 Albion Street
Glasgow
G1 1LH

With thanks to the leaflet group.

children's rights service

Your views matter

Your voices your words

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

For Glasgow children and young people looked after by foster carers or residential carers

If you are in continuing care or aftercare we can work with you up to your 26th birthday

How can we help? we can...

- visit you where you live
- provide you with information about your rights
- listen and support you to provide your views and opinions
- help to ensure you are involved in decision making
- help you to plan and prepare for meetings
- speak to people on your behalf
- keep you informed and give you feedback
- offer a range of opportunities for you to get involved and have fun
- get your views on matters that affect you
- celebrate and share your achievements
- help you make a complaint

Here are some of your rights

- to be safe
- to be treated with respect
- to be well looked after
- to speak up and have your opinions listened to and taken into account
- to achieve all you can
- there are many more....

What young people said about meetings

it was a good meeting,
I am happy with that i don't want to talk about negatives in my review when I am doing so well

I liked meeting everyone & telling them what I want

All children and young people have rights and your rights should always be respected.