Freedom of Information Requirement for Review or Representation

Introduction

1. We have procedures in place to allow an individual¹ who is dissatisfied in any way with a decision taken by us on the provision of information under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 to require us to review decisions taken.
2. This note sets out the procedures we follow where someone is dissatisfied.
3. Under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, this procedure is known as a "Requirement for Review". Under the Environment Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 this is known as a "Representation"². A requirement for review/representation can arise in circumstances where the applicant believes we have not complied with our obligations under the legislation, including (but not limited to):-
 - (a) where we indicate that we do not hold information, but the individual believes we do; or
 - (b) where the individual feels that we have not provided the advice and assistance we should have done; or
 - (c) where we have refused to provide information; or
 - (d) where we have failed to reply to a request for information; or
 - (e) where we have failed to respond to a request for information within the prescribed timescale; or
 - (f) where the individual feels the charge for providing information is higher than it should be.
4. If the applicant is dissatisfied in anyway he/she can require us to review the way the request was handled or the decision reached.
5. Whenever we reply to a request for information a copy of this Requirement for Review/Representation Procedure must accompany the response. The response must also explain to the applicant their right to seek a review of any decision taken and the subsequent right of appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner and the Courts (see paragraphs 14 to 16 below).

¹ Reference to an individual is to any person or organisation that makes a request for information.

² For our procedure under the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004 see our separate guidance.

Timescale

6. A requirement for review should be submitted in writing (or other permanent form) within 40 working days of either:-
 - the day the individual actually received a response from us; or
 - the end of the period within which we should have replied to a request.
7. We have the discretion to consider requests for review received beyond this timescale. It would normally be our intention to accept requirements for review outwith the 40 working days, unless there are practical difficulties in doing so e.g. relevant documentation was due for destruction and has been destroyed. It is always in the applicant's interests to submit a review request within the 40 working day period specified.

Submission of Requirement for Review

8. Where a response is made to a request for information, the response must advise that any request for review is submitted to:-

John Dearden
Head of Business Administration
Glasgow City Integration Joint Board
Commonwealth House
32 Albion Street
Glasgow
G1 1LH

Telephone 0141 287 0394
E-mail John.Dearden@ggc.scot.nhs.uk

9. Should the person making the request submit their requirement for review to another person within our organisation, the recipient must pass it immediately to the Head of Business Administration.
10. The person seeking a request for review/representation must state their name and an address for correspondence. A statement explaining why the individual feels aggrieved at the decision taken (or the lack of response) by the organisation should accompany any request for review. It is always helpful if the person seeking a review makes their dissatisfaction explicit in what they say to us and clearly sets out the grounds for requesting a review. Where the applicant is seeking further information relating to his/her original request this will normally be treated as a new request.

Review Procedure

11. The review procedure is designed to be accessible, prompt, fair and impartial. It may result in a decision being made where no decision was made previously, confirmation of the original decision, or the making of a different decision to that originally taken being made. The decision will be binding on the organisation.
12. Requests for review have to be processed swiftly within a maximum timescale of 20 working days. During this timeframe we will review our previous decision and provide any further information required if the review outcome requires this.

Our Timescale

13. If it is concluded that the applicant has been unfairly treated, an apology should be offered on behalf of the organisation.

Right of Further Appeal

14. The applicant is to be advised of his/her right to raise the matter further with the Scottish Information Commissioner if he/she remains dissatisfied with the decision of the organisation. The right of appeal is to be exercised in writing (or some other permanent form) by the applicant who must provide an address for correspondence, specify the request for information to which the requirement for review relates and the reason for dissatisfaction. An appeal to the Commissioner must be made within a period of 6 months from the date of any notice on the review request made to us or within 6 months from when a decision should have been notified by us.

15. In advising of this right, the applicant should be given details of the contact address and e-mail address of the Commissioner at:-

Rosemary Agnew
Scottish Information Commissioner
Kinburn Castle

E-Mail: enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

16. The applicant should also be advised of their right to make an appeal against any decision by the Scottish Information Commissioner³ on a point of law to the Court of Session.

Assistance to Applicants

17. Under the spirit of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, the recipient of a request for review should provide assistance, if required, to any applicant who seeks it. He should also ensure that the needs of persons with a disability within the terms of the Equality Act are not unfairly disadvantaged as a consequence of the procedure described above and shall make appropriate adjustments to the procedure where appropriate under the terms of that Act.

Review of Requirements for Review and Decisions of the Scottish Information Commissioner

18. Our internal procedures will provide for decisions on requirements for review and decisions by the Scottish Information Commissioner are reviewed to ensure that Board processes follow best practice in dealing with requests for information under the legislation.

³ Under Section 56 of the Act.
