This information asset list has been prepared in accordance with the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015 (“the 2015 Regulations”). This asset list should be read in conjunction with Glasgow City Council’s Policy on the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015.

The 2015 Regulations establish a framework for making the re-use of public sector information easier. The legislation compliments existing access to information legislation including the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 and the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004.

The purpose of this Information Asset List:

- allow the public to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class

We will publish the information we hold that falls within the classes of information below. If a document contains information that is exempt under Scotland’s freedom of information laws (for example sensitive personal information or a trade secret), we will remove or redact the information before publication and explain why.

Availability and formats

Where possible and relevant, we will make information available in both a ‘human readable’ format (such as PDF) and an open, ‘machine readable’ format that is not dependent on specific software.

We will make information available electronically where possible.

OFFICIAL

Terms and conditions of re-using information

If the council receives two requests from different applicants for the same information, it cannot discriminate between them. For this reason, the council (other than in exceptional circumstances) cannot grant exclusive rights to re-use the information.

If the council grants an application for re-use of information, an applicant will require to agree to our terms and conditions of re-use, in accordance with our Licences. Depending upon the information requested the council may require either:

1. Glasgow City Council Open Licence (based on the Non-Commercial Government Licence) or
2. Glasgow City Council Charged Licence

For further information on charging, please refer to our Policy on the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015. This policy also advises you how to complain if you are dissatisfied with any aspect of this Information Asset List.
