NOTES

- (a) Insert title of the Act authorising compulsory purchase. If the purpose of acquisition as stated in article 2 of the order is contained in some other Act or Acts insert the short or collective title of such Act or Acts.
- (b) Insert the name of the acquiring authority.
- (c) Insert the section and Act authorising the use of powers of compulsory purchase.
- (d) Complete the title of the Order.
- (e) Describe the purpose in precise terms. Where practicable, the words of the relevant Act may be used, but where those words are in general terms covering a range of purposes, the particular purposes for which the land is required should be stated if possible.
- (f) Omit "first" if articles 4 and 5 are omitted and omit "Land to be purchased" if article 4 is omitted.
- (g) Describe the colouring or other method used to identify the land on the map. The boundaries of each plot of land separately numbered in the Schedule to the order should be clearly delineated. Also, the map itself should contain sufficient topographical detail and be on a scale sufficient to enable the situation of the land to be readily identified on the Ordnance Map and related to the description given in the Schedule.
- (h) This article may be omitted or may be inserted with or without the reference to sections 71 to 78.
- (i) The modifications required should be indicated, e.g. by the provision "References in the said section (5) to the company shall be construed as references to the said and references to the [railway or] works shall be construed as references to the land authorised to be purchased and any buildings or works constructed or to be constructed thereon."
- (j) Omit the whole of article 4 if inappropriate.
- (k) Use the first alternative if the whole land described in the First Schedule falls within paragraph 11 of the First Schedule to the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947 (purchase of common or open space). Otherwise use the second alternative and describe the land, specifying the map number(s) of such part as given in column 1 of the First Schedule.
- (l) If the order is to provide that, on registration of a conveyance in implementation of the order, real burdens or servitudes affecting the land to be acquired are not to be extinguished or are to be varied or that certain rights to enforce such real burdens or servitudes are not to be extinguished or the development management scheme affecting the land is not to be disappled, then this should be specified in a Schedule to the order and paragraph 5 should be included in appropriate form.
- (m) Replace "Third" with "Second" if article 4 is omitted. Delete if article 5 is omitted.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

---

- (n) Authenticate in the manner appropriate to the authority making the order, giving the date and place of making.
- (o) Column 1 need not be completed when the order relates only to one plot of land. Where there are two or more plots they should be numbered on the map and referred to accordingly in column 1. In the case where the maker of the order is satisfied, after reasonable inquiry, that it is not practicable to ascertain the name of the owners, lessees and occupiers of any land, the appropriate columns should be endorsed "unknown". In columns (3) and (4), where the names of owners, lessees and occupiers are uncertain, persons reputed to be in the relevant category may be named and the entry in the column modified accordingly. In column (4), tenants for a month or a period less than a month should be excluded.
- (p) The compulsory acquisition of land—
- (1) which is the property of a local authority;
  - (2) which has been acquired by statutory undertakers for the purpose of their undertaking; or
  - (3) forming part of a common or open space or held inalienably by the National Trust for Scotland
- is subject to Part III of the First Schedule to the Acquisition Act, and consequently may be subject to Special Parliamentary Procedure in certain circumstances unless section 120 of the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 applies. The column "Description" need only refer to the special category into which the relevant parcel of land falls.
- (q) Insert description of the land to be given in exchange. Omit if article 4 is omitted.
- (r) Delete as appropriate.

FORM 8 Form of Statement to be included in Form 4 when a General Vesting Declaration is to be made.

Regulation 5(c)

(1) The acquiring authority may acquire the land to which this notice relates by making a general vesting declaration under section 195 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 (hereinafter referred to as "the Planning Act"). Such a declaration shall not be executed before the end of the period of two months beginning with the date of the first publication of this notice except with the consent of every occupier of the land affected.

(2) The effect of the making of such a declaration is to vest the land in the acquiring authority at the end of such period as may be specified in the declaration but which will be not less than twenty eight days from the date on which the service of notices required by paragraph 4 of Schedule 15 to the Planning Act is completed. These notices shall specify the land and state the effect of the declaration and shall be served on every occupier of any of the land specified in the declaration (other than land in which there subsists a short tenancy or a long tenancy which is about to expire as hereinafter defined) and on every other person who has given information to the acquiring authority with respect to any of the land to which this notice relates in pursuance of the invitation published and included in this notice.

(3) The effect of a general vesting declaration is as follows:—

At the end of the aforesaid period specified in the declaration the land specified in the declaration, together with the right to enter upon and take possession of it, shall vest in the acquiring authority and on being registered in the Land Register of Scotland the declaration shall have the same effect as a conveyance registered in accordance with section 80 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845. Also on the date of vesting, the Acts providing for compensation shall apply as if, on the date on which the declaration was made, a notice to treat had been served on every person on whom, under section 17 of the said Act of 1845, the acquiring authority could have served such a notice (other than any person entitled to an interest in the land in respect of which such a notice had actually been served before the date of vesting and any person entitled to a short tenancy or a long tenancy which is about to expire).

(4) Where any land specified in the declaration is land in which there subsists a short tenancy or a long tenancy which is about to expire the right of entry shall not be exercisable in respect of that land unless, after serving notice to treat in respect of that tenancy, the acquiring authority has served on every occupier of any land in which the tenancy subsists a notice stating that, at the end of such period as is specified in the notice (not being less than fourteen days) from the date on which the notice is served, they intend to enter upon and take possession of such land as is specified in the notice, and that period has expired. The vesting of the land in the acquiring authority shall be subject to the tenancy until that period expires or the tenancy comes to an end whichever first occurs.

(5) Paragraph 38 of Schedule 15 to the Planning Act defines "short tenancy" and "long tenancy which is about to expire" as follows:

"Short tenancy" means a tenancy for a year or from year to year or any lesser interest and "long tenancy which is about to expire", in relation to a general vesting declaration, means a tenancy granted for an interest greater than a short tenancy, but having at the date of the declaration a period still to run which is not more than the specified period (that is to say, such period longer than one year as may be specified in the declaration in relation to the land in which the tenancy subsists).

In determining what period a tenancy still has to run at the date of a general vesting declaration it shall be assumed—

- (a) that the tenant will exercise any option to renew the tenancy and will not exercise any option to terminate the tenancy then or thereafter available to the tenant; and
- (b) that the landlord will exercise any option to terminate the tenancy then or thereafter available to the tenant.

If the said land includes any land in which there is a short tenancy or a long tenancy which is about to expire (see Appendix A), the right of entry shall not be exercisable in respect of that land unless, after serving a notice to treat in respect of that tenancy, the acquiring authority have served on every occupier of any of the land in which the tenancy subsists a notice stating that, at the end of a specified period (not being less than fourteen days) from the date on which the notice is served, they intend to enter upon and take possession of such land as is specified in the notice, and that period has expired. ## EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace and update the Compulsory Purchase of Land (Scotland) Regulations 1976 (S.I.1976/820) which are revoked. The Regulations prescribe the forms in which compulsory purchase orders and general vesting declarations shall be made and also the notices, advertisements and other documents required in connection therewith.

The Regulations update the various statutory references to those currently in force and omit obsolete material relating to the repealed Community Land Act 1975. The Regulations also amend the forms of compulsory purchase order, notices and general vesting declaration to take account of changes to compulsory purchase procedure made by sections 106 and 109 of the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003. The principal changes are—

- (a) to amend the form of compulsory purchase order to make provision for the possibility that such an order may not extinguish real burdens and servitudes, or certain rights to enforce the same, or may not disapply a development management scheme. These possibilities are envisaged by section 106(1) and (2) of the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003;
- (b) to amend the various forms of notice to be given under paragraph 3(b) of the First Schedule to the Acquisition of Land (Authorisation Procedure) (Scotland) Act 1947 to take account of the amendments made to that paragraph by section 109 of the Title Conditions (Scotland) Act 2003;
- (c) to remove references to the Community Land Act 1975 and to replace references to the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1972 with references to the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 and the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) (Scotland) Act 1997 as appropriate.
