In response to the request for information relating to correspondence/discussions I have had with Ibrox & Cessnock Community Council with regard to the Licensing Application for a Rangers Football Club Fanzone, I attach all emails that may be considered to be of relevance.

In addition to the attached emails, I received a phone call from [REDACTED] of Ibrox & Cessnock Community Council sometime week beginning 3rd September (from memory). The content of the conversation was brief and consisted of being advised by the [REDACTED] that further Licensing Applications for an Ibrox Fanzone had been withdrawn, I advised that there would then appear to be nothing additional for the Community Council to comment on.

The [REDACTED] also advised me that the Press had been seeking comment from the Community Council with regards to the Fanzone. I advised that the Community Council may wish to consider stating the facts, in that it had previously reached a decision by simple majority not to support the Licensing Application for a Fanzone; it revisited this decision following new information being made available, with the subsequent decision remaining as not to support the Licensing Application for a Fanzone; whilst acknowledging that the margin of the simple majority vote had reduced.

All community council minutes should be forwarded to [REDACTED]@glasgow.gov.uk in accordance with clauses 7a and 7c(vi) of the Scheme for the Establishment of Community Councils.

All community councils are also reminded to note and assume the annual accounting period as stated in Clause 9a of the Scheme; "The financial year of each community council shall be from 1 September to 31 August in the following year. This will enable the proper submission of an independently examined statement of accounts to the community council's Annual General Meeting held in October each year."

Hi [REDACTED]
Only 4 could make the 5.30 meeting. 1 CC as you know does not use digital comms so not the best way forward for this particular meeting.
We had a Community councillor only meeting in a separate room during the tea break instead to consider Rangers request and then took a vote.
Result was 3 for reviewing and 4 for status quo. We then intimated this view as part of the agenda item Fan Zone update.
Rangers had 3 reps at meeting and Glasgow life 1. Rangers understandably very disappointed. Not sure how they will respond next but I don't think we have heard the last from them on this matter. We made it clear that the ComCouncil does not object to a fan zone per se. It is the proposed venue that is the problem ie a community facility. We indicated that we were still very open to engaging with Rangers on all and any joint issues relevant to the community and hope that this will take place going forward.
Any comments would be appreciated

Subject: Standing Orders - Guidance

Dear [REDACTED]

Following our telephone discussion with regard to you seeking guidance for Ibrox & Cessnock Community Council (ICCC) on the Governance, which includes the Standing Orders, I would advise of the following in relation to some recent Licensing proposals ICCC has considered within its boundary area.

Firstly, I would highlight the key content of clause 8 of the Constitution – Voting Rights of Members; (1) the right to vote at any meeting of the community council is held by all community councillors, but not by associate members or ex-officio members; (2) all decisions of the community council will be decided by a simple majority of those present and eligible to vote; and (3) in the event of a vote of the community councillors that results in an even split, the Chairing member shall have a casting vote in addition to their deliberative vote (whether or not exercised).

The voting arrangements are also further explained within clause 5 of the Standing Orders – Voting; (1) voting shall be taken by a show of hands of those present and eligible to vote i.e. the elected membership (residents) of the community council; (2) exceptions can be taken to a show of hands at community council meetings; in that voting may be held by secret ballot; and (3) the Chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.

Turning to ICCC re-visiting any previous decision (not forgoing that adequate and appropriate time for discussion and consideration should ideally have been taken before any final decisions were made); there is provision within the current Governance for Community Councils to do this. Clause 4i of the Standing Orders – Order of Debate states that "A motion or amendment which is contrary to a previous decision of the community council shall not be competent within 6 months of that decision; unless an error or new information becomes available which requires further consideration. Any subsequent decision taken by the community council, which is contrary to a previous decision, can be implemented with agreement in writing from Glasgow City Council."

The principal components of the above clause are “unless...new information becomes available which requires further consideration” and “any subsequent decision...which is contrary to a previous decision, can be implemented with agreement in writing from Glasgow City Council.” Based upon my understanding from your description of events, it may be considered by ICCC members that the provision of expanded detail and information relating to Licensing proposals at its July meeting could constitute ‘new information’, along with the apparent period of reflection by some ICCC members following the July meeting, which you described as potentially leading them to reconsider their previous decision.

Based upon the above, and should ICCC wish to re-visit its previous decision relating to a recent Licensing proposal, then this would be a matter for the members to consider for inclusion in the next ICCC meeting agenda. Following, and if this item were to feature and subsequent, and more informed, discussion led to a contrary decision being arrived at, then Glasgow city Council would consider this in accordance with Clause 4i of the Standing Orders before providing its agreement or otherwise.

I trust you will find the above to offer some guidance in relation to your recent query with regard to Governance. I am happy for you to share this with the ICCC membership should you wish, to help you gather their views.

Dear [REDACTED]

Following our telephone discussion with regard to you seeking guidance for Ibrox & Cessnock Community Council (ICCC) on the Governance, which includes the Standing Orders, I would advise of the following in relation to some recent Licensing proposals ICCC has considered within its boundary area.

Firstly, I would highlight the key content of clause 8 of the Constitution – Voting Rights of Members; (1) the right to vote at any meeting of the community council is held by all community councillors, but not by associate members or ex-officio members; (2) all decisions of the community council will be decided by a simple majority of those present and eligible to vote; and (3) in the event of a vote of the community councillors that results in an even split, the Chairing member shall have a casting vote in addition to their deliberative vote (whether or not exercised).

The voting arrangements are also further explained within clause 5 of the Standing Orders – Voting; (1) voting shall be taken by a show of hands of those present and eligible to vote i.e. the elected membership (residents) of the community council; (2) exceptions can be taken to a show of hands at community council meetings; in that voting may be held by secret ballot; and (3) the Chair of the meeting shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.

Turning to ICCC re-visiting any previous decision (not forgoing that adequate and appropriate time for discussion and consideration should ideally have been taken before any final decisions were made); there is provision within the current Governance for Community Councils to do this. Clause 4i of the Standing Orders – Order of Debate states that “A motion or amendment which is contrary to a previous decision of the community council shall not be competent within 6 months of that decision; unless an error or new information becomes available which requires further consideration. Any subsequent decision taken by the community council, which is contrary to a previous decision, can be implemented with agreement in writing from Glasgow City Council.”

The principal components of the above clause are “unless...new information becomes available which requires further consideration” and “any subsequent decision...which is contrary to a previous decision, can be implemented with agreement in writing from Glasgow City Council.” Based upon my understanding from your description of events, it may be considered by ICCC members that the provision of expanded detail and information relating to Licensing proposals at its July meeting could constitute 'new information', along with the apparent period of reflection by some ICCC members following the July meeting, which you described as potentially leading them to reconsider their previous decision.

Based upon the above, and should ICCC wish to re-visit its previous decision relating to a recent Licensing proposal, then this would be a matter for the members to consider for inclusion in the next ICCC meeting agenda. Following, and if this item were to feature and subsequent, and more informed, discussion led to a contrary decision being arrived at, then Glasgow city Council would consider this in accordance with Clause 4i of the Standing Orders before providing its agreement or otherwise.

I trust you will find the above to offer some guidance in relation to your recent query with regard to Governance. I am happy for you to share this with the ICCC membership should you wish, to help you gather their views.

Regards
