Hi [REDACTED]

We spoke with [REDACTED] from Palace Park on 30th July regarding the possibility that his recently submitted Saturday morning 11-a-side Regular Let at Ibrox may be relocated to POA and/or Drumoyne on some dates due to the Rangers Fanzone proposals still not being concluded. He only put in the Regular Let request the day after the July Ibrox & Cessnock Community Council Meeting which in itself seemed to be a bit of a coincidence, more so now that Councillor [REDACTED] is speaking specifically about them.

Mr [REDACTED] seemed to accept a Drumoyne Grass pitch at the same day & time as being a fair alternative if his team needed to be moved out of Ibrox on the odd date. We did reiterate to him at that point that discussions with GCC, RFC and Community Council were continuing & that no decision had been made about the Fanzone progressing or not, so his booking at Ibrox would remain as it was unless he heard from us.

I will ask our Admin Hub to give Mr [REDACTED] a courtesy call to reconfirm his booking remains at Ibrox & is unaffected due to the RFC Fanzone being shelved.

Regards
[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]
Cllr [REDACTED] raised an issue re Palace Park being unable to book pitches at the same time as the proposed 'fan zone' times. Or being told they may have to move if the 'fan zone' goes ahead – can't remember.

Anyway he raised these issues with me in a phone conversation and I forget to pass them on – apologies. Could you now contact Palace Park and, in the light of the recent final decision on the 'fan zone', see how we can assist them.

Thanks,

Dear █

After my phone call to you last week regarding Palace Park lets, I would inform you that they have yet to be contacted. The aforementioned makes it look to this organisation that I haven't represented them, which is unacceptable. Aside from this issue, there are other issues/ concerns that need looked into regarding the Ibrox Complex.

I will raise these at the appropriate level.

Cllr █
